

FARM MECHANIC – AGRICULTURE

Danroc (Pty) Ltd seeks to add a mechanic to their team who also has an interest in agricultural infrastructure and development. The position will report directly to the Project Manager.

MINIMUM REQUIREMENTS:

- Qualified diesel mechanic and or trade test certificates advantageous
- Min of 3 years in similar role
- Proven ability with: Welding / fitting and turning / assembling / general mechanics
- Proven ability to maintain farm equipment
- Ability to work in dependent and manage a team
- Ability to run the workshop
- Computer literate
- Ability to speak some Siswati advantageous
- Good verbal and written communication skills
- Effective admin and record keeping skills required

TO BE SUCCESSFUL IN THIS ROLE YOU WILL NEED:

- To have an inherent energy directed towards leading and being part of a team.
- Take accountability.
- A high level of self-motivation and the ability to pay great attention to detail.
- To express the ability to communicate well.
- Effective time management skills with the ability to prioritise tasks and problem solve.

The candidate must understand the unique challenges and opportunities within modern agriculture and be willing to work in a rapidly changing environment.

Although the post is available immediately, the company will be negotiable on a suitable starting date. The position offers a market related remuneration package.

Only shortlisted candidates will be contacted.

Applications and CV's must reach denise@danroc.co.za by 31 August 2022.

DANROC
Growing the Future